If anyone not originally from "our country" is an alien, that logic makes me and about 98 percent of you all, indeed aliens. Excluding my native american friends. We do exist!

I didn't see any aliens during my walk last night, therefore i have permanently concluded they do not exist, and nothing that anyone says or does will ever convince me otherwise. #alienathiestmanifesto

Tonight at the Starved Rock Veranda will be plenty of live musicians including myself, Michael Cerqua, and Gabe Burdulis who is coming down to the Illinois Valley from Madison, Wisconsin. This show is 100% free to attend, and is happening from 8-11 tonight, Saturday August 10th, 2013. The veranda is an excellent spot, hope to see some people there!

Well...August you are off to quite a start. Five shows in three days. Though they were more like "gigs" than shows...some people don't like the word gigs, but singing songs and making music on an instrument while people carry on is not quite the same as theater or motion picture programs...so how do you like the word programs? I presented five music programs this weekend, on the topic of love and/or the lack thereof. I could be coming to a city near you in the near future, so keep being my friend if you would like to know when that should be happening.

52 degrees in July is no bueno so i'm heading home after a solid weekend at the bigfoot bandcamp music festival. Thanks to the peeps who stayed up for my late night set. Lots of great performances the whole weekend, though the majority of the IV must be more interested in watching boat races...which doesn't surprise me one bit at this point. No worries...goodnight and/or good morning party peoples!

Tonight I smoothed out some rough edges of new songs I will be playing at Bigfoot Band Camp Music Festival and Shooting Park E.P. Release Party....pretty excited about how full this new solo setup is sounding. Also a reporter who writes for "Illinois Valley Living" magazine emailed me today about doing an interview and article about what i'm up to. I thought that was nice of her....but i'm not sure if she knows what she's gotten herself into. The dilemma for me, though...is wondering how much I will be misquoted and have my words taken out of context like another local newspaper has done. So, people...if you want to know what i'm up...just talk to me about it directly!

Just had a dream that Stevie Wonder stopped by for a visit. He asked me to play something for him, and I decided to play the piano and sing even though that is definitely not my forte. It went alright though with the masterful vibes in the room, and then we sang an acapella chorus of that new song "california knows how to party" whatever it's called. It was nice to sleep until 830 for the first time in a month and a half!

Whoever says "words don't hurt" is most likely comforting themselves after being hurt by words....because words are powerful...."in the beginning was the word".....or how about the pen being mightier than the sword? What is the pen most likely doing? Writing words.....one thing that I feel is more powerful than words, though, is intention.

Be wise and come to the open mic at TwoFools tonight...be a part of The LaSalle - Peru, Illinois - Local Music Scene....come on Illinois Valley people it starts at 10pm! I'll be hosting so we can reenact your favorite scene from Wayne's World or get everybody to sing along to Hotel California....whatever! Have fun after the Chicago Blackhawks win the first game of the Stanley Cup!

This track was recorded by Kevin Kramer this past Friday at Audio Out in Peru, IL, then mixed and mastered on Saturday at the same place. EVERYTHING you hear in this track was recorded all-at-once, as a live performance in one stereo track. Kevin is happy to be able to share his new material with you that was recorded at Audio Out. Download it for free if you'd like: <https://soundcloud.com/ahymnsa/u-me>
